Fine Time

Desario

Smiling, you were always smiling
How could I have known that you were Hiding your feelings from me?
I wondered how could it be
Your note's here
Says you don't love me
My worst fear is now reality
You picked a fine time
To tell me you don't love me
You picked a fine time
To tell me you don't care
And what I thought was love
Was really just pretending, yeah
And your love for me
Was never really there
Never really there
Trying, I am always trying
To understand the reason why
I'm crying day and night, I'm crying
I can't believe I was so blind
It's so clear
That you don't love me
My worst fear is now reality
You picked a fine time
To tell me you don't love me
You picked a fine time
To tell me you don't care
What I thought was love
Was really just pretending
And your love for me
Was never really there
How many nights did I sleep well
Waiting by the phone?
I couldn't see what was going on
Told myself our love's too strong
I wish our trust came tumbling down
Another love you have found
There's nothing left, no more to hide
And there is no easy way to say goodbye

You picked a fine time
To tell me you don't love me
You picked a fine time
To tell me you don't care
What I thought was love
Was really just pretending
And your love for me
Was never really there
To tell me you don't love me
To tell me you don't care
What I thought was love
