Trust (Hell Below)

inc.

that day seems the same as now in my eyes i never left that town the feeling that i had back then is the same one that will never end lost to the river lost to the roads lost to the people that i used to know lost to the pleasures and the benefits never really found what good it dididid take you there but i know youd judge ive come a long way from where i was im not asking if ill ever be enough so dont tell me the truth cause youre hard to trustfrom the winds to the east to hell below
to hell belowhad a little sister that she didnt know hadnt seen mom since she was 6 years old only the reason i knew is cause her little brother told me didnt stop me i always wanted the gloryid take you there but i know youd judge its a long way from where i was dont ask me if youll ever be enough ill tell you the truth but im hard to trust ill tell you the truth but im hard to trust they taught me so well how to be hard to trustfrom the winds to the east
to hell below
to hell below
