Disappear

Greenwheel

You don't see
You never have, never will
What do you believe
These images are unforgivingAnd jealousy always running through your veins
You cannot breathe, here's your witness
Everything's not right
No, everything's not rightWhere did you go?
You forgot about all you've left behind
It's all on the table, so you wonder why
Yeah, you wonder why you can't hurt any moreEmotions just can't be seen in light
You're lost in here, you're lost in here
You just disappear
You just disappearYou deny the pain that overcomes deep inside
You've kept it there too long
And grayest skies, answers bleeding through
Sunlight cast its shadows over allWhere did you go?
You forgot about all you've left behind
It's all on the table, you wonder why
Yeah, you wonder why you can't hurt any moreYour emotions just can't be seen in light
You're lost in here, you're lost in here
You just disappear
You just disappearNo, everything's not right
Everything's not rightWhere did you go?
You forgot about all you've left behind
It's all on the table, you wonder why
Yeah, you wonder why you can't hurt any moreYour emotions just can't be seen in light
You're lost in here, you're lost in here
You just disappear
You just disappearNo, everything's not right
No, everything's not rightYou're just lost in here, yeah, yeah
You're just lost in here, yeah, yeah
You're just lost in here, yeah, yeah
You just disappear, yeah, yeah
