Brown/Blue

Nils Bech

Your eyes are blue, but they look brown
I wonder why (x4)Is there something you try to hide
I wonder what (x4)This is not a song about those straight lines
This is a song about someone newYour eyes are blue, but they look brown
I wonder why (x4)Then a slight turnaround
With a strange and vague eye
So I pose and hope for
That it's me you look for
A strange affection
Makes me joyful, joyful
And your hip is next to me
I want to lean inIf blue looks brown
Should I feel sure
A wake up call
A mystery
An unsafe dream
An unsafe dreamYour eyes were blue, but they looked brown
I wonder why (x4)And this colour changing
Makes me dream about those straight linesThen a slight turnaround
With a strange and vague eye
So I pose and hope for
That it's me you look for
A strange affection
Makes me stay, stay
And your hip is next to me
I still lean in
