No Pain No Gain

Social Distortion

Well, I walked
Man, I walked
Through some pain today
Well, I guess today was my turn to hurtWell, why not
You know I'm not any different
And no pain means no gain
I've heard them sayWell, I used to think that life
Was so ugly
Live fast, die young
Leave a pretty corpseBut now I see things so much different
And life seems sometimes pretty to me
