Long Long Road

Appleton

Time has no delay
As we move to another day
While the world is turning over
Night and day are just a passing phaseAnd you know, yes, you know
It's gonna go when you hear your call
Just reach out, grab a hand
'Cause there's nothing wrong with sharing what you feel inside'Cause it's a long long road when you're traveling alone
And you've got nowhere to go
'Cause on this long long road, all you have to do is call
Sit back and we'll share the phoneKnotted up inside
Feeling tense, nowhere left to hide
And while the world is turning over
Night and day are just a passing phaseAnd you know, yes, you know
It's gonna go when you hear your call
Just reach out, grab a hand
'Cause there's nothing wrong with sharing what you feel inside'Cause it's a long long road when you're traveling alone
And you've got nowhere to go
'Cause on this long long road, all you have to do is call
Sit back and we'll share the phoneShare the phone
Share the phoneAnd you know, yes, you know
It's gonna go when you hear your call
Just reach out, grab a hand
'Cause there's nothing wrong with sharing what you feel inside'Cause it's a long long road when you're traveling alone
And you've got nowhere to go
'Cause on this long long road, all you have to do is call
Sit back and we'll share the phone'Cause it's a long long road when you're traveling alone
And you've got nowhere to go
'Cause on this long long road, all you have to do is call
Sit back and we'll share the phone'Cause it's a long long road when you're traveling alone
'Cause on this long long road, all you have to do is call
Sit back and we'll share the phoneShare the phone
