Tower

jizue

You're high up on the Tower,
Now don't look down,
I will be OK here on the ground,
And you can always call to say hello from time to time,
When you're no longer mine...
I will be drunk on cheap beer,
Like everyone else around here,
You've got the world at your feet,
There's nothing out there for me,
You don't have to lie,
Saying that you'll try to make it work from a distance,
Just leave me here tonight as i watch you climb up to the top of your ambitions,
You're high upon the Tower now don't look down,
I will be okay here on the ground,
And you can always call to say hello from time to time,
When you're no longer mine.

Here in a pale shadowed light,
Under the trailer park lights,
There'll be nothing left for you to see,
You won't even recognise me.
You don't have to lie,
Saying that you'll try to make it work from a distance,
Just leave me here tonight as i watch you climb up to the top of your ambitions,
You're high upon the Tower now don't look down,
I will be okay here on the ground,
And you can always call to say hello from time to time,
When you're no longer mine.
(Piano Interlude)
You're high upon the Tower now don't look down,
I will be okay here on the ground,
And you can always call to say hello from time to time,
When you're no longer mine,
When you're no longer mine.
