Face Your Demons

I Prevail

You're so incomparable, I want to know just how you did it.
Was it with your words, are you willing it admit it?
Was it with your force, you took the fruit right from the source.
You stole her innocence without remorse.Hear these words, I'm gonna make sure that you remember the night when you
Stole from her, the beautiful life, the only one she ever knew.
How dare you, be the fire that burned the branches off the tree, be the storm that disrupts the sea.
You are the reason, now face your demons.I'll make sure, the whole world knows your name
But for all the wrong reasons.
I'll watch your body rest in flames.
I'm gonna watch you rest in flames.Now that, I see the truth of the liar.
I will, be the one to set the fire.
Tied up, in the bed where you defiled her.
Your time has expired.
Expired.
Open the fuck up.I'll make sure, the whole world knows your name
But for all the wrong reasons.
I'll watch your body rest in flames.
I'm gonna watch you rest in flames.
I'll make sure, the whole world knows your name
But for all the wrong reasons.
I'll watch your body rest in flames.It's time to face your demons. Yeah.
You are the reason.
It's time to face your demons.
