Fallen

Drist

Praise and atone
A beautifully crafted, method to control
Rise and fall
For your delusional, healingBut there's no time to praise a savior
Who blinds you all for bein' his mistake hereI've fallen, fallen
The wind no longer deceives me again
But there's no time to praise a savior
Who blinds you all for bein' his mistakeI rise and fall for you to see me
Behind it all, I'll show you the wayI've fallen, I've fallen
The wind no longer will sway me again
But there's no time to praise a savior
Who blinds you all for bein' his mistake hereI rise and fall
I rise and fall
I rise and fall
I rise and fallI've fallen, fallen
The wind no longer deceives me again
But there's no time to praise a savior
Who blinds you all for bein' his mistake hereBut there's no time to praise a savior
Who blinds you all for bein' his mistake here
