True Love

Madina Lake

If I lost it all in a fireball, would you be there for me?
If the money's gone and the future falls, will you walk away?
'Cause my confidence is vanishing, will you leave me starving here?
To wither down and disappear as you walk awayLet me go, let me live, just leave me alone
Buried here, next to love, on my own
I'll never trust, never feel, never love again
With just this bitter taste in mindThey always say true love is all you need
But when true love is gone, can we go on?
They say true love would never leave
But my true love is gone and I can't go onI'm in the catacombs of a broken heart where you used to be
When I loved you for all the reasons that you hated yourself
'Cause you were desperate and pathetic but just as beautiful to me
As the day you left and I became just a memoryLet me go, let me live, just leave me alone
Buried here, next to love, on my own
I'll never trust, never feel, never love again
With just this bitter taste in mindThey always say true love is all you need
But when true love is gone, can we go on?
They say true love would never leave
But my true love is gone and I can't go onIt's 2 a.m. and I'm picturing the way things used to be
But all I see is you looking at him like you used to look at meThey always say true love is all you need
But when true love is gone can we go on?
They say true love would never leave
But my true love is gone and I can't go on, I can't go on
