I Want To Save You

Something Corporate

Standing on the edge of morning
Scent of sex and new found glory
Playing as she's pulling back her hair
She drives away
She's feeling worthless
Used again but nothing's different
She stayed the night
But knows he doesn't care
Home by three
Deafening quiet
The porch light's off
Yes they forgot it
She'd cry herself to sleep
But she don't dare
Then she wants to be a model
She wants to hear she's beautiful
She's beautiful
I want to save you
I want to save you
I need you
Save me too
I want to save you
Dressed by dawn and out the door
No light
She memorized the floor
So she could leave without being detected
She works till three

It's uniform
She dreams that he'll come by the store
She prays for days
The boys mean she's protected
And she wants someone to see her
She needs to hear she's beautiful
She's beautiful
I want to save you
I want to save you
I need you
Save me too

I want to save you
And she won't sleep
She won't sleep
And she won't sleep
At all
I want to save you
I want to save you
I need you
Save me too
I want to save you
(let me save you)
I want to save you
(let me save you)
I want to save you
(let me save you)
I want to save you
