Hunted

Pale Saints

Never alone
Stick fast to him
As shadows loom
It tracks him everywhere he goesSurgeon's hands
The only way
To free him from
The one he begs will disappearFeels free in his sleep
But there no such peace
Waits for him to awake
Laughs in his face
Falls to his embraceNever alone
Says to him
Shadows long
Shadows everywhereFeels freedom is sleep
But there's no such peace
Waits for him to wake
Laughs in his face
Falls to himFeels freedom is sleep
But there no such peace
Waits for him to awake
Laughs in his face
Falls to his embrace
