Dirty Diamonds

Alice Cooper

It looked so good, your perfect plan You had to get greedy to be the man Now you're holding the bag, paying the price Gonna get burned by the heat of the ice

Dirty diamonds

You rolled the dice, you bet your life You put your trust in your trophy wife Got stabbed in the back in the blink of an eye She's in bed with the boys and the FBI

Dirty Diamonds Blood soaked money in your shakin' fist Dirty diamonds Stone cold killers and you're on their list Ah, ah oh yeah

You're tied to a chair witha gun at your head Your face is all smeared with the blood that's been shed You were gonna be rich Now you're gonna be dead And all that glitters turns to lead

> Dirty Diamonds Blood soaked money in your shakin' fist Dirty diamonds Stone cold killers and you're on their list

> Dirty Diamonds Blood soaked money in your shakin' fist Dirty diamonds Stone cold killers and you're on their list

Dirty Diamonds

Diamonds don't cheat Diamonds don't lie Diamonds are forever

Diamonds never die

Dirty Diamonds Blood soaked money in your shakin' fist Dirty diamonds Stone cold killers and you're on their list

Dirty Diamonds Blood soaked money in your shakin' fist Dirty diamonds Stone cold killers and you're on their list

Run for your life, you can't hide Can't you hear 'em coming You're gonna die You better run for your life, you can't hide Can't you hear 'em coming You're gonna die You better run for your life, you can't hide Can't you hear 'em coming You're gonna die You better run for your life, you can't hide Can't you hear 'em coming You're gonna die
