Do it Again

Steven Furtick

Consistency separates winners from wannabe's
Diligence makes the difference between all-time greats and one-hit wonders
For the race is not given to the swift or to the strong
But to the one who endures, to the end
So pick yourself up
Shake your past off
Put one foot in front of the other
And do it againWhen you hear that little voice saying
'No one believes in you, you're too far behind, you're too small,
this isn't working and this isn't worth it'
Another voice rises to remind you that
The same power
The same strength
The same Spirit who raised the Savior from a borrowed grave
Is alive and active in you
This is your guarantee of complete victory
The same God who delivered you from the lion and the bear
Can and will deliver this new giant into your hands
So draw the line
Take your stand
Just like you wielded your weapons last time
Do it again
You've been here before
The battle is not yours
It's the Lord's
And if He caused you to triumph back then
Be confident He'll do it again
Yesterday today and forever Jesus Christ is the same
And in His name you are unstoppable
He's the author and finisher of your future and your faith
All things are started and sustained by His grace
He's never failed, never faltered, never wavered, never lost
And He's not about to start
But receiving this promise requires perseverance
For many are called
But few are chosen
Many begin
Fewer finish
So don't just do it

Do it again
I know sometimes it's hard to keep it moving
When you can't see your progress
When you've lost your perspective
When the pain has pushed you past your breaking point
But this is no time to tap out
This is no time to back down
This is no time to turn around
Because the end of yourself is the beginning of Him
The end of your strength is the beginning of His
So fix your focus
Wake your courage
Stir your confidence
And do it againThe dream God put inside of you was free
But to see it come to pass you'll have a price to pay
Set your face like flint with determination and declare
I will do it again
When it doesn't make sense
I'll do it again
When I have to go against the wind
I'll do it againWhen all hell is breaking loose
I will not be crippled by confusion
I will not sway to the cadence of complacency
When it feels like hope has disappeared from the horizon
And I've waited for rain but I don't see any signs
I will look again
Lifting my eyes to the skies
I see a cloud the size of a mans hand
Starting to expand
And it may start small
But little is much when God is in it
And I know I'll win if I just don't quit
Don't you dare quit
When you've marched six laps and the walls still won't fall
Take another lap
You're closer
Than you think you are
You're closer
Than you've ever been before
Walk onYou've come to far to faint
He who spoke it is faithful to fulfil and show up today
And the next day
And the next day
And the next day
Press till something happens

Pray till something changes
Push till something breaks
Say within yourself
Whatever it takes
Whatever the cost
No matter what they say
No matter what I feel
I've got a job to do
And I will see this through Until God's Kingdom comes
And His will is done
In my life
I'm leaving every excuse behind
I'm being transformed by the renewing of my mind
I'm taking up my cross and following the one
Who never stops short
Who never surrendered
Who said he'd never leave me or forsake me
Jesus is with me always
He came and conquered
He died and rose again
And now He's calling me
Causing me
Commanding me
To breathe again
Hope again
Trust again
Give again
Change again
Expect again
Rejoice again
Fight again
Rise again
Right here
Right now
In the Name of Jesus
I will live again
