Falling In Place

Dog's Eye View

I put my toes on the floor this morning
Just like every other
For some reason
Today I was not scaredI threw myself at the mercy of the wind
I don't know where I'm going
But I know where I've been and I'm bored
I think there must be moreFalling in love again
Give me a little grace
Falling seems to be what I do best
I think everything is falling in placeI've spent 21 years in mourning
For someone I've never really been
It's funny how everybody only sees
What they want to seeDanger comes in all shapes and sizes
I'm tired of looking for it
If you spend your life avoiding surprises
Are you really living or just giving in?Falling in love again
Give me a little grace
Falling seems to be what I do most
I think everything is falling in placeI don't want to wake up, one day and realize
What I was dreaming of was right
In front of my shut eyes
I don't want to spend my life
Afraid of saying, "Hello"
For fear of saying, "Goodbye"Falling in love again
Give me a little grace
Falling seems to be what I do best
I think everything is falling
I think everything is falling
I think everything is falling in place, placeI think everything is falling
I think everything is falling, falling
Everything is falling
I think everything is falling
Everything, everything, everything is falling
