Unleashing Hell

Blood Red Throne

Chaos uprising
Unleashing hell
Human waste
The will of the few
Will dominate the many
Human flesh
Scattered remainsFrom the sky above
A lethal force of mass destruction
Is casted upon the flesh
That lie belowDevastation unleashed
Fuel to the internal fire
A will of stronghold
And unquestionable beliefLife means nothing
Only the religious belief
Into oblivion
With the deceasedAnother martyr screams
Faith in the unseen
Dying for their moral stupidity
The gods are preparing a human feastThe end complete
Peace retrieved
Law forces upon the free
Extreme measure
For the extreme at heart
The flesh always summons painFrom the sky above
A lethal force of mass destruction
Unleashing hell below
