Where Did Everyone Go?

Nat King Cole

It wasn't my intention to eavesdrop

But there a guy sat, two stools away

And you could tell the bartender knew himAnd that he'd been there some other day

And while I sinned my libetion

And while I sipped my libation

I overheard his conversationRemember, how I'd walk in

What excitement there would be?

Never less than twenty people

I had lots of friends, you seeI gave the party, I was the host

Everyone loved me, I was the mostChampagne and plenty of it

Real imported caviar

And the hatcheck girl got fifty

Just for lighting my cigarI kept 'em laughin', jokes by the yard

Everyone loved me, I was a cardAnd I had a girl, a beautiful girl, her whole world

I think, consisted of mink and diamonds and pearls

Because she was mine, I'd glitter and shine,

And life was a ball, and wasn't it all, so cozy 'n fine?But nothing lasts forever and the deepest well runs dry
Just 'cause I've stopped rolling sevens doesn't mean I have to cry

I'll take that nightcap, one more won't show

And incidentally maybe you know where, oh, where, oh, where

Did everyone go? Where, oh, where, oh, where Did everyone go?
