Who Knows

The Greencards

A million miles from where I started
Paths I've traveled along the way
The winds have shared my journey
And carry dreams that I'd chaseI reach up from way down under
'Neath the fear I have inside
Chances are by taking chances
So hold the dice and let it glideWho knows, who knows
Who knows what tomorrow holdsMelodies of love surround me
Beyond the ways I've come to know
In harmony we'll find the answer
To what lies at the end of it allWho knows, who knows
Who knows what tomorrow holdsWho knows, who knows
Who knows what tomorrow holds
Who knows, who knows
Who knows what tomorrow holds
