Not The Other Guy

Nick Carter

If he makes you cry
'Cause he said he'd love you forever
You should know that I'm be the one to make you smile
When the lights go dark and the colors around you are fading
You can reach for me
'Cause I'll always be anything that you're looking to find
I'm not the other guy
Don't ever wanna lie to you baby
Girl, it should be you and me tonight so
Don't leave me waiting
Oh, I'm not the other guy
Would you take my heart?
Would you take all my love if I gave it?
There's no place too far
I will always get to you
I'll be there when you call
Take the weight of the world off your shoulders
Girl, you found the one who will ever run
No, I'm never gonna stop, do you know?
I'm not the other guy
Don't ever wanna lie to you baby
Girl, it should be you and me tonight so
Don't leave me waiting
Oh, I'm not the other guy
So girl, just let me tell you right now
You'll never find another, no doubt
Who will treat you good like you deserve
Or the one who'll always put you first
So baby, don't you know, know, know, you know
You know it should be you and me tonight?
So don't leave me here alone
I'm not the other guy
Don't ever wanna lie to you baby
Girl, it should be you and me tonight so
Don't leave me waiting
Oh, I'm not the other guy
(I'm seating on the sidelines)
I'm not the other guy
(I've been waiting my whole life)

Girl, it should be you and me tonight so
Don't leave me waiting
Oh, I'm not the other guy
