Sad

Maher Al-Muaiqly

Man it?s been a long day Stuck thinking bout it Driving on the freeway Wonderin if I really Tried everything I could Not knowing if I should Try a little a harder
Oh but I?m scared to death
That there may not be Another one like this
And I confess
That I?m only holding on
By a thin thin thread
I?m kickin the curb cause you never heard
the words that you needed so bad and I?m kickin the dirt cause I never gave you the things that you needed to have
I?m so sad? sad
Man it?s been a long night
Just sittin? here
Trying not to look back Still looking at the Road we never drove on And wonderin if the one I chose was the right one
Oh but I?m scared to death

That there may not be
Another one like this
And I confess
That I?m only holding on
By a thin thin thread
I?m kickin the curb
cause you never heard
the things that you needed to have
I?m so sad? sad

So sad? so sad
Oh but I?m scared to death
That there may not be
And I confess
That I?m only holding on
By a thin thin thread
And I?m kickin the curb
I?m so sad? so sad
