Cinco de Mayo

Charlie CB

Baby I got, no need to worry
No need to feel
No need to be alone, alone, alone again
Do you know why 'cause I'm around girl
I can see the sadness in your eyes, oh my
I can see the teardrops crying, why, oh why?
I remember them days alone
Oh, so long ago
And I had this really silly crush on you
But I hoped, you'd never know
When you were sitting on your doorstep
Wearing shoes that you've outgrown
Trying really, really hard just to impress you
But you would turn on your radio
(Your favorite song, you'd play)
She would always laugh at me
But I would take it
'Cause I thought she would make it
But all this time, it's been killing me
So I sing
Ooh, ahh, na, na, na
I can see the sadness in your eyes, oh my
I can see the teardrops crying why, oh why?
I can see the sadness in your eyes, oh my
I can see those teardrops crying why, oh why?
I double-rode you down to that secret place
The only world we could be alone
And the sun had hid its face from you
Where we'd usually laugh and be skipping stones
You would tell me about your family
How they'd never ever seen to get along
And pretending it don't hurt you
But the clouds told me something's wrong
(She didn't want to say)
Wanted a life that could not be
But she would fake it
Until she would make it
Still all this time, it's been killing me
So we sing

Ooh, ahh, na, na, na
I can see the sadness in your eyes, oh my
I can see the teardrops crying why, oh why?
I can see the sadness in your eyes, oh my
I can see the teardrops crying why, oh why?
Still all this time, it's been killing me
So we sing
Ooh, ahh, na, na, na
Hope, she needs a little
Hope, she wants to feel the sunshine again
Hope, she needs a little
Hope, she needs to feel her sunshine again
I can see the sadness in your eyes, oh my
I can see the teardrops crying why, oh why?
