Rejection

Disembowel

Why'd you take that away from me?
Just one taste and I needed a little more of your sweet honey
I want you to feel my pain, I want you, don't walk away
I need you, the time is right, I need to hold you tight
Rejection, I can't believe you're gone
Rejection, why'd you have to walk away?
Rejection, I can't believe you're gone
Rejection, now, it's time to turn the page
Rejection, what the fuck did I do?
Rejection, why'd you have to walk away?
Rejection, you broke me in two
Rejection, rejection
What the fuck did I do?
What did I do to deserve the blame?
Remember this, and don't forget my name thats
Bitch, you know my name, handle this shit before I rope ya
I'm gonna slit your throat before I smoke ya
Bet it all but you don't own me
You tried to punk me but you don't know me
You tried to blow me off without no question
You better pray for divine intervention
Don't walk away, just run away
You really didn't think I'd let you walk away from me
Just one more time, I need to feel your lips around this piece
If you could come my way, what could I do to make you stay?
Then you could penetrate my life then you'd rip me up inside
Rejection, I can't believe you're gone
Rejection, why'd you have to walk away?
Rejection, I can't believe you're gone
Rejection, now, it's time to turn the page
Rejection, what the fuck did I do?
Rejection, why'd you have to walk away?
Rejection, you broke me in two
Rejection, rejection
Pushing and crushing me down on my knees
Taking and breaking and making me scream
I can't contain this I'll make you all bleed
You've opened me up now, you'll feel my disease
In my suffering

(Stop)
Suffering
(Dying too)
In my suffering
(Stop)
Suffering
(Dying too)
In my suffering
(Stop)
Suffering
(Dying too)
In my suffering
(Stop)
Suffering, dying too
Even in my suffering
I'll make you believe
You can't believe I'll make you disappear
Occurred to me and then it became clear
Rejected me, oh no, I don't think so
I'll take you out quick, don't even blink so
You cut me up and hung me out to dry
Got your itch like a bitch, you made me cry but Retribution, confusion, illusion hairline fracture, multiple contusion
Don't walk away, just run away
