You're a Liar

Raven

You said it's time to get together
Stop the fight
You're always saying that two wrongs
Don't make a right
But as you're throwing down the sword
You pick the knife up
And you stab me in the back
You're a liar
You're a liar
You're a liar
You're a liar
I never did believe
A single word you say
Your kind of promises
Won't see the light of day
But as you're promising the earth
You turn around and then
You take it all away
You're a liar
You're a liar
You're a liar
You're a liar
You made the summit
But you'll never reach the top
You'll never fool us
With your crazy power play
You think you're making progress
Who cares what you say
If you don't stop, I know
You'll blow us all away
You're a liar
You're a liar
You're a liar
You're a liar
You're a liar
You're a liar
You're a liar
You're a liar
