The Loop

Deptford Goth

Try to picture yourself on the world
In the world within the universe
Spinning
You were here don't let life push you out
In the end what's going on up there?It's bigger
It's okay if we're afraid
When the light begins to fade
Darkness, takes over
And it all was here before
And we'll all be here some more
Goes up, and then down
Maybe we're dead
Maybe it's paradise
Maybe we're saved
And just haven't realized
What we know is we don't know
Is any of this happening?
At least it got close
At least we got closeEven if it's an imagined state
And we're acting in a foreign film
It's better
Never having had those echo dreams
Rip them back into our conscious nerves
Forever
It's okay if we're afraid
When the light begins to fade
Darkness, takes over
And it all was here before
And we'll all be here some more
Goes up, and then downFind a way
Find a way back and remember it when we're doing it again
On my paint underneath of the look
On repeat, and not even a lookMaybe we're dead
Maybe it's paradise
Maybe we're saved
And just haven't realized
What we know is we don't know
Is any of this happening?
At least it got close

At least we got closeMaybe we're dead
Maybe it's paradise
Maybe we're saved
And just haven't realized
What we know is we don't know
Is any of this happening?
At least we got close
