The Man Who...

Josh Rouse

He used to work in Central Park where
At least a dozen women broke his heart
And there he'd sit and think about his pastShe lived in Brooklyn and she rode the trains
First she'd take the G then the L
And that is where they met upon that dayShe wants to help him now'Cause he's the man who doesn't know how
He's the man who doesn't know how
He's the man who doesn't know how to smileIt's not that simple just to change a man
Even if you think that you have skill
With disadvantaged heartsSo used some caution when you see him pass
He won't hurt you but his face is sad
And everyday he's breathin' through the gillsShe's gonna help him now'Cause he's the man who doesn't know how
He's the man who doesn't know how
He's the man who doesn't know how to smileHe's the man who doesn't know how
He's the man who doesn't know how
He's the man who doesn't know how to smile
He's not happy by himselfThe summer turned into fall
And they took a little trip to the cape
And that is where they laid they're bodies downAnd in the morning when the the sun came up
She looked at him just to say
That she would never ever go astrayIt's gonna work out now'Cause he's the man who doesn't know how
He's the man who doesn't know how
He's the man who doesn't know how to smileHe's the man who doesn't know how
He's the man who doesn't know how
He's the man who doesn't know how to smile
He's not happy by himselfHe's not happy by himself
He's not happy by himself
He's not happy by himself
