Long Distance Love Affair

Carl Thomas

I want you still, love me with your heart
If your hands ? touch me, or would you still
Would you still play your part
And be a good girl when Iâ€™m away
And I will call you boob, a thousand times a night
Because I want to believe you baby
Wanna believe that youâ€™re at home, alone

Even though it ainâ€™t that easy in this long
Long distance love affair, oh yeah
I know your heart beats slow for me
Even though Iâ€™m not right there
We still share long distance love affair
Would you still tell them youâ€™re all mine
If your hands couldnâ€™t touch me, would you still
Would you still make time
Just a little ? greedy, girl
Iâ€™ll let it be known, I swear Iâ€™ll treat you right
And girl I hope you believe me baby
Promise Iâ€™ll be home alone

Even though it ainâ€™t that easy in this long
Long distance love affair, oh yeah
I know your heart beats slow for me
Even though Iâ€™m not right there
We still share long distance love affair
Long as you know
