This Town Needs Guns

So come on lets chase those memories away and drink the night into oblivion.Ive been watching you and memorised
every last line of your profile.
Every shade of your complexion, every tone of your skin.
And I am not surprised to find you in his eyes.
Hanging on every word
dropped from his mouth.Cos lately Ive been watching you.
Ive been waiting for you to take me home.So tell me all of your deepest dark secrets Lying in your arms inseparable.
