One Desire

Jakarta

Here I am
Just for You, only You
Here I stand
Wanting You, only You
In Your presence, Lord
I will find my strength
You're the breath in me
You're my everything
With my heart bowed low
and my hands held high
All consuming fire
You're my one desire
Your Name, oh, Your Name
Let it stay on my lips
I will seek Your face
God, it's You, only You
In Your presence, Lord
I will find my strength
You're the breath in me
You're my everything
With my heart bowed low
and my hands held high
All consuming fire
You're my one desire
In Your presence, Lord
I will find my strength
You're the breath in me
You're my everything
With my heart bowed low
and my hands held high
All consuming fire
You're my one desire
It's You
God, It's You
It's You
Only You
My heart will always sing

I love You, I love You

My heart will always sing
I love You, I love You
My heart will always sing
I love You, I love You
My heart will always sing
I love You, I love You
In Your presence, Lord
I will find my strength
In Your presence, Lord
I will find my strength
It's You
God, it's You
It's You
Only You
Oh, it's You
God, it's You
It's You
Only You
It's You
My heart will always sing
I love You, I love You
My heart will always sing
I love You, I love You
My heart will always sing
I love You
