Tempest

Ejecta

'when I was applying a housing athourity showed up and left some brown tan concrete with a few holes in it -- I got to shakin cause it looked like a credit card and I could only have ?2000.00 my account and that's a debit any way a street dookey bisgay --gave me some brichitas and i got to bacon st fried and ready to section off that block party when the athourties showed me up and I lost the spelling bee oh well cant' be reminded of that! not even a spell check shows up ---it's like howard dynamics rand dome selection i got augury art pratice instead of music practice---what note is f heptachord titus'
