Waiting for the Light to Change

Tonic

Brazen is love's redeemer
When you have so far to go
It loves the true believer
For the innocence they ownLife is good, life is grand
When you're sittin' on top of the world
Life is good when it's in your hands, your hands
And nobody can change your worldI'm just waiting for the light to change
I'm just waiting for the light to change
I'm just waiting for the light to change
I'm just waitingAll my prize possessions that I thought I needed so Dragged me down on a razor with a heaviness they tow
Always searching for a love that's in bloom
It's a warm and soft embraceHoping you'll never be lonely again
It's a fear that you just can't faceI'm just waiting for the light to change
I'm just waiting for the light to change
I'm just waiting for the light to change
I'm just waitingLife is good and life is grand
When you're sitting on top of the world
Life is good when it's in your hands your hands
And nobody can change your worldI'm just waiting for the light to change
I'm just waiting for the light to change
I'm just waiting for the light to change
I'm just waitingI'm just waiting, I'm just waiting
I'm just waiting, I'm just waiting

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/