We Tried Like Hell

Jonah Smith

We tried like hell to make it work.
Weâ€™re swimming light, weâ€™re bathing hurt.
The summerâ€™s gone, I wish you well.
We both know, we tried like hell.
Even when, you canâ€™t cry or smile, you know the truth.
It may take a while, but it sinks in and you can tell.
We both know (we both know, we both know) we tried like hell
I hope that this donâ€™t leave a mark; ring of white, skin thatâ€™s dark
But thereâ€™s love enough to spare; I swear its true.
Working like two mules in a pack; our heads were down no looking back.
Iâ€™ll hold you dear, my heart will swell.
We both know (we both know, we both know)
We tried like hell.
