I Am an Elephant

Pinhead Gunpowder

Wow, look at you
Your pathetic
It's amusing
It's depressing
It's amazing
Tell everyone
What your not
And they believe you
They proceed to
Emulate you
Now you've got a whole
Circle Jerks of fakes
Crowding up my space
I'm talking shit behind your back
I'd say it to your face
But I'm not sure which one
Hey!
There's one thing that hasn't changed
You're still a joke to me
It's so easy to see right through you
Do you remember
That I knew you
When you were just Yourself ?
Well I wonder, were you ever?
Anyway, I liked you better
When you did not
Change with the weather
Doesn't it feel good to know
I'll always remember you ?
Do you wish I'd go away ?
Do you think I could ?
Change you past, change your style,
Change your identity
But you're a fool and a fake
I don't forget easily
There's one thing that hasn't changed
You're still a joke to me
It's so easy to see right through you
