Water In Hell

Broken Social Scene

The newspaper writer, tears you like a thread
You're lookin' for your sailor boy
The music's uncertainly, disconcertin' me
We're lookin' for your sailor boyFrom what I can tell
There's water in hellThe shuck and jive, the shuck and jive is over
The shuck and jive, the shuck and jive is over
The second time, the second time it's older
It's too bad, the monkeys on your shoulderWell, the truth be a liar on stone cold messiah
Time to let the cash roll in These ain't the kind of men I wanna defend
It's the year two thousand and tenFrom what I can tell
There's water in hellThe shuck and jive, the shuck and jive is over
The shuck and jive, the shuck and jive is over
The second time, the second time got older
It's too bad, the monkey's goneNo one likes to lose
No one likes to lose
No one likes to loseThere's water in hell
There's water in hell
There's water in hell
There's water in hellThere's water in hell
There's water in hell
There's water in hell
