

Two Blind Minds

Bobby Sherman

You left, even though I said "I'm sorry"
You smiled at me and said "This is fate"
The minutes have turned into hours
How long must I wait?

All upside things have turned down now
It seems like I'm running 'round in a square
Our room full of love now is empty
I just can't believe you don't care

Two blind minds
See how they run
Two blind minds
See how they run
run run run run run

Too much was wrapped in tomorrows
Planning for the lifetime we would share
Now all my world is broken
All my hopes are bare

Two blind minds
See how they run
Two blind minds
See how they run
run run run run run

Suddenly the room begins to brighten
I turn and you're standing at the door
You hand me some tears and say you're sorry
You give me your love forevermore again

We're in love
We're in love again
We're in love
We're in love again
