Praise And Alleluia To The Savior

Joe Diffie

On Christmas morn' a son was born
No one knew he'd be the King of kings
A baby child so meek and mild
And through the ages, angel voices singPraise and Alleluia to the Savior
Give thanks to God for all the gifts He brings
Praise and Alleluia to the Savior
And don't forget what Christmas really meansWise men came, they knew His name
That blessed day went down in history
And still today He lights the way
And shows His love for all the world to seePraise and Alleluia to the Savior
Give thanks to God for all the gifts He brings
Praise and Alleluia to the Savior
And don't forget what Christmas really meansPretty bows and mistletoe
Families gathered 'round the Christmas tree
And while they share their Christmas fare
They remember that the greatest gift was freePraise and Alleluia to the Savior
Give thanks to God for all the gifts He brings
Praise and Alleluia to the Savior
And don't forget what Christmas really meansYes, praise and Alleluia to the Savior
And don't forget what Christmas really means

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/