longing

æŸ•ææ¨åºƒæ¨[1]

I was down in Atlanta Georgia so far away from home I woke up missing my baby and feeling so alone and only time can change my mind from feeling sad and blue longing, longing for you

Got to find myself a song to sing waiting for the days to bring me closer to my home sweet home closer to the love I know I feel the sunshine on my face smiling love and warm embrace
longing, longing for you

I got a girl
and she's so fine she's in Georgia on my mind thinking 'bout her all the time
thinking 'bout when I come home to her and to know I won't be longing, longing anymore, no I won't be
longing, longing anymore
