Slowly Being Poisoned

Gehenna

awakening from dreams that are too real you know just how the killer feels tomorrows nightmare is haunting you a shield of terror you can't get through you keep denying your realityopen your eyes and you will see that you are chained and can't break free you are dying for a dead belief search you soul
find your hell trapped inside a human shell blessed with the will to killmurder flows through like a drug in your veins twisting your mind like a rasorsharp bladeno sanity no fucking will to be you kill yourself
smiling
you are dyingin need of control your desperate grip could not hold built for speed the bullet in your head has won it all
