Love For Tender

Elvis Costello

You won't take my love for tender
You can put your money where your mouth is
But you're so unsure
I could be a miser or a big spender
But you might get much more than you bargained forCheck in on a checkmate
Grassin' on a classmate
So beautiful and fortunate
You're the one who hates to love
But he's the one who loves to hateAnd he can fix you all for good
Because he is the neighborhood
You can get money for blood
Blood money for doin' no goodBetter tell me now, have you made your selection?
Are you ready for correction?
'Cause the wages of sin are an expensive infectionIt'll make you bankrupt
Better pay up now don't interrupt
I'm so in love, I'm so sincere
Just like a well-known financier
You know, I've never been corruptI'll pay you a compliment
And you'll think I am innocent
You can total up the balance sheet
And never know if I'm a counterfeitYou won't take my love for tender
You won't take my love for tender
You won't take my love
You won't take my love
You won't take my love
You won't take my love, no, no, no

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/