Discoball World

DavÃ-d Garza

every day i miss the you i used to know before i let you down before you let me go we'd listen to the left side of the radioand you were so fine with your train track smile i fell for your coffee eyes your half and half
white lies
back around 92
i lost god
i found you
i found youi found you dancin with the blissed out brothers and the dred locked white girls spinnin like a discoball world yeah with the extra virgins
and the gold teethed stoners spinnin like a discoball world yeahthe flowers that we stole from san jancinto they're in the vodka vases by the window
i can't forget the date that you forgot mewhen you kisses got so viciousand i fell for your coffee eyes
back around 92
i found youi found you dancin with the blissed out brothers
spinnin like a discoball world
yeah, yeah
and the laptop loners
alrightalrightcan i dance with you baby?
can i dance with you? with you
