In Love Again

The Slingshots

Must've made you so sad to know that I was in love again Guess all the things that we had just wasn't good enough for you When I gave you my world you turned around and you hurt me, tell me why Thought that you was my girl
I guess that things ain't the same [Chorus]
I was the one that gave you my heart
How could you turn around and play these games (I was in love again)
Now, baby, don't you cry Look in my eyes
How did you feel when you gave my love away (I was in love again)
Now that I'm doing better Moving on with my life
You wanna try to come around just to see you own it You say you make me better but all you do is lie

'Cause every night you goin' be creeping with another man
I don't wanna be there waiting every night wondering if you are with another guy
If I was to give you all my love again you would only turn around and leave me lonely
[Chorus]
I gave you all the love that I know
I let you know that you're my heart and my soul
So why you wanna give my love away
Nothing in the world that you can do will make me wanna stay [Chorus x2]
(Gave you my heart)
(Play these games, I was in love again)
(Must've made you so sad, to know that I was in love again)
