Sunshine

Floetry

You know sometimes we, umm
We don't recognize our dreams inside our reality
And, uh, other times we're not aware of exactly
What's real, you know, we walk around day dreamin'
But the sunshine, the sunshine always is and I
I just wanna see my lovely sunshine
I just want to bring back all of my blue skies
(Blue skies)
And if you take away my rainbow, I will cry, cry
(Cry, cry)
Give me back my sunshine
Dreamin' my state of being and I see you smiling
You're so happy, just laughing and standing strong
I'm missing you right here, listen to my tears
I'm waking up to skies so gray, needing you to brighten up my day
Okay, okay, listen, catch your breath, cool out, you need to calm down
Concentrate, don't go makin' all your time run out
See, you're okay it looks much worse than it really is
And you'll pull through, come on, you know how we be doin' this
It's me and you, yo, you promised, you can't pull out now
We're friends for life so you can't just sell me out
We shared a lot but you know we'll see just so much more
Our wedding day and the children that we prayed for
I just wanna see my lovely sunshine
(Sunshine, yeah)
I just wanna bring back all of my blue skies
(Blue skies)
'Cause if you take away my rainbow, I will cry, cry
(Cry, cry)
Give me back my sunshine
I used to depend on your rides to show me
The way that I should go, my reality is blurry

I'm afraid of being all alone, your light has been my guide
Throughout the good and bad, I wish that I had spent
A little more attention to my one and only sunshine
Listen, listen, I'd never leave you, yo, I sweared on my grave
Damn, what's that, I'm feelin' dizzy, kinda gettin' faint

But it ain't nothin', didn't sleep that much last night
From watchin' over you but nonetheless, I'm cool, I'm fine
I said I'm feelin' fine so back up off me, I'm alright
I'm here to see my friends, yo, what's up with that blindin' light?
Said I don't need to lie down, I don't need your help right now
What's up with all the noises, all the runnin' around
You've got it wrong, I'm not the one who needs the help in here
Yo, what's up with you, you're crying, I see tears
Yo, what's going on, don't leave, please don't take her out
Said I don't understand, I'm kinda feelin' scared now
I said it's gettin' hard to breathe, gettin' hard to see
I'm not too sure anymore what's going on with me
Please bring her back, connect me, talk just one more time
But it's too late, the last exhale is mine
(Sunshine, yeah)
I just wanna see my lovely sunshine
(Sunshine, oh)
I just wanna bring back all of my blue skies
(Blue skies)
And if you take away my rainbow, I will cry, cry
(Cry, cry)
Give me back my sunshine
(Oh)
I just wanna see my lovely sunshine
(Sunshine, yeah)
I just wanna bring back all of my blue skies
(All of my blue skies)
And if you take away my rainbow, I will cry, cry
(Cry, cry)
