This Is Home

Bad Lieutenant

You flew so high
But you're coming down
The snow falls hard
In tinseltown
Now there is a ghost
Where you once stood
I know you'd leave this
If you only could

This is home
This is home

Just tell me that it's true
I want you by my side
Girl I'm doing it for you
You've got to open your eyes
I'm gonna take you higher(higher higher higher)
Than a bird can fly
Girl I'm so in love with you
Don't even think that it is true

You're living underground
With your despair
I'll building you a ladder
To the clear blue air
This feeling invites you
Where ever you may roam
I'm right there beside you
Wherever you may go

Just tell me that it's true
I want you by my side
Girl I'm doing it for you
I'm gonna open your eyes
I'm gonna take you higher(higher higher higher)
Than a bird can fly
Girl I'm so in love with you
Don't think that it is true

This is home

This is home

Just tell me that it's true
I want you by my side
Girl I'm doing it for you
I'm gonna open your eyes
I'm gonna take you higher(higher higher higher)
Than a bird can fly
Girl I'm so in love with you
Don't even think that it is true
