Backyard Flames

Pinhead Gunpowder

I heard a song tonight
It made me think of you
All the pain the loss of love
That's gone from insideYou both seem so happy you could cry
She says she don't love you anymore
He says he doesn't need her anyway
Dreams have feltered
Plans have failed
The kids are caught up in your wakeI had a dream you were having a party
Martinis, skins, and backyard flames
It seemed to last all nightShe says she don't love you anymore
He says he doesn't need her anyway
She was Jusus you were Satan
Red lights flashing you saw green
Went ahead full bore
