The Safety Of Sleeping In

Patent Pending

The safety of home is growing thinner you're all that keeps me awake the summer is passing much faster than winter but we all remember winter's mistake this island is calling and screaming your name screaming baby come homeand i'll stay awake through sunrise cause babe that's the closest to your eyes won't be here any more and i'll stay awake through sunrise cause darling the closest to your eyes won't be here any moreI guess we're doing ok I hear you're doing just fine but darling there ain't a day when you're not on my mindand i'll stay awake through sunrise cause babe that's the closest to your eyes
