Claro De Luna

Alexia

A voice in the night
Baby, I hear you calling
A light in the dark
And I remember the pain in my heartClaro De LunaA voice in the night
Baby, I hear you calling
A light in the dark
And I remember the pain in my heartA passion inside
Said that you loved me
And would never give upBut you told me lies, oh, baby
Changed your mind
Ran away and said goodbyeClaro De Luna
I'll never forget my baby
Claro De Luna
I'll never forget my sweetest nightClaro De LunaI don't wanna cry
But tears keep on falling
I was so blind, I should have known
There was something to hideI gave you my life
And all that you wanted
From me was a nightI've opened my eyes now, baby
You played with my heart
Now I break down and cryClaro De Luna
I'll never forget my baby
Claro De Luna
I'll never forget my sweetest nightA voice in the night
Baby, I hear you calling
A light in the dark
And I remember the pain in my heartClaro De Luna
I'll never forget my baby
Claro De Luna
I'll never forget my sweetest nightClaro De Luna
I'll never forget my baby
Claro De Luna
I'll never forget my sweetest nightClaro De Luna
