Hurt

Mike Dignam

I love you no matter what, theres nothing that could stop me You tied my heart in a knot controlled the life I've got without knowingHow am I supposed to breathe when you don't care If I am alive, or I just drop dead?
How am I supposed to lie in this cold bed when You've gone and left me powerless?I'm hurt hurt hurtI'd write your name on my skin tattooed to let it sink in where you last touched me I'd give you more than I mean I'd give you every single thing I haveHow am I supposed to breathe when you don't care if I am alive, or i just drop dead?
Oh when life comes close, running away but I stick by you like no one else so why are you doing this now?I'm hurt hurt hurt
ooooh
hurt hurt hurt oooohI loved you more than you know (x6)I'm just hurt hurt hurt
