Ragged Ass Road

Tom Cochrane

Moving out, can you see that shine
Feel the change as you roll on down the line
Where the shore fires burn out on a new frontier
Where the past don't haunt you and there's nothing else to fearBaby, don't you hold out too long
They might not let you beMovin' out feel the wind in your hair
Where the sun shines at night, I can take you there
To the land of the midnight sun
Ragged Ass RoadI carried you, you carried me
Nothin' we can't hold, nothing we can't be
They've taken everything and what have they put back
I really don't give a damn 'cause there's nothin' here that we lackBaby, don't you hold out too long
They might not set you freeThey might not want to let you see
They can't hold on, as your soul might not let you be
Stand back while it burns for the midnight sun
Ragged Ass RoadAll the time, again and again
Standin' out where you might see them shine
Oh, did you find the midnight sun
Down on Ragged Ass RoadAre you out there everybody out there with me
Shout it out, shout it out there, one more time
To the land of the midnight sun
Ragged Ass RoadShe's a dandy, yeah you bet
There's some things that you haven't seen yet
In the land of the midnight sun
Ragged Ass Road
