Cornerstone

Richard X. Heyman

All other ground is sinking sand
A dying maze of desert land
Where darkness rules the heart of man
Till the sun shines light on him
Lord of all, show You're strong
On our knees we fall
Be a Cornerstone, be a Cornerstone
Be the Rock higher than I
Be my Fortress Wall
Be a Foundation for all
My Cornerstone
The building swaying in the wind
The towers crumble down again
This certainly will be the end
If they're not built on Him
Lord of all, show you're strong
On our knees we fall
Be a Cornerstone, be a Cornerstone
Be the Rock higher than I
Be my Fortress Wall
Be a Foundation for all
My Cornerstone
You, You are the Builder of my heart
You held me together from the start
Be a Cornerstone, be a Cornerstone
Be the Rock higher than I
Be my Fortress Wall
Be a Foundation for all
My Cornerstone
Be a Cornerstone, be a Cornerstone
Be the Rock higher than I
Be my Fortress Wall
Be a Foundation for all
My Cornerstone
