Don't Let It Get to You

Jane Child

Don't let it get to you
Don't let it get to youNothing I can do, now you're on your own
Better make it good on the telephoneI know how to make your hair stand up
Are you hip to what it's all aboutMust be something you can do
To distinguish you from youDon't let it get to you
Don't let it get to youDon't let it get to you
Don't let it get to youAll the puppets on the stage of life
Wearing costumes, someone's husband's wifeWicked thoughts have been concealed from view
I'd die blushing if I only knewMust be something you can do
To distinguish you from youDon't let it get to you
Don't let it get to youDon't let it get to you
Don't let it get to youTime to testify, baby, tell the truth
Is my lifestyle so uncouth?Give me liberty or give me death
Give me reason to get myself undressedHappy ending, they're satisfied
You and I remain simply horrifiedSmiling pillars, holier than thou
Deviate then take their final bowThis should come as really no surprise
It's been happening right before your eyesDon't let it get to you
Don't let it get to youDon't let it get to you
Don't let it get to youDon't let it get to you
Don't let it get to you
