Tearin' Out My Heart

Rainbow

First time I saw your face
By your side was the place
That I would wanna be Sometimes and I don't know why Love can come or it can pass you by Now you take all the love you gave to me
(you take it from me)
You're tearin' out my heart
Oh -
Never thought I'd see the day
You would throw my love away and oh...it's killing me
One thing you'll never know
How it hurts to let you go
As you turn and walk away from me..
(walk away)
You're tearin out my heart
feel like I been ripped apart..
You're tearin out my heart...
Daybreaks I try to be free
But your memory is haunting me oh - there's nothing I can do
All alone in the candlelight
I see your face again tonight
And I feel all the emptiness without you (without you) tearin' out my heart
Oh, I feel like I been ripped apart...
Tearin' out my heart...
whoa...my heart
